

Clinical guidelines recommend individualized glycemic targets based on age and comorbidities. Continuous monitoring and patient education are essential.

Multidisciplinary care improves long-term outcomes.