

Prevention focuses on lifestyle changes. Maintaining healthy weight, regular exercise, and balanced diet reduce risk.

Early intervention in prediabetes delays progression.